The probation officer believes that the offender has violated the following conditions of supervision:

Violation Number    Nature of Noncompliance

1.                    The offender has violated the standard supervision condition which states 'You shall not commit another federal, state, or local crime.'

On March 8, 2012, Pennsylvania State Police arrested Allen and charged him with Manufacture, Delivery, or Possession with Intent to Manufacture or Deliver Heroin (2 counts), Criminal Use of Communication Facility, and Intent to Possess Controlled Substance (Heroin) by Person not registered. These offenses include Allen's participation in a drug transaction in Luzerne County, Pennsylvania on February 24, 2012.
2.                    The offender has violated the standard supervision condition which states 'You shall not leave the judicial district without the permission of the Court or Probation Officer.'

Allen left the District of New Jersey on or about February 24 and March 8, 2012. On those dates Pennsylvania State Police observed the offender in Luzerne County as part of a narcotics trafficking investigation.

3. The offender has violated the standard supervision condition which states 'You shall notify the probation officer within 72 hours of being arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer.'

On March 8, 2012, Allen was arrested by Pennsylvania State Police on several drug offenses. The offender did not notify the probation officer about the arrest by March 12, 2012 or at any time thereafter.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.
